

PRE-DESIGN REPORT

First step on an extraordinary journey

Confidence to move forward with what you want to do.

Clarity about the process of moving from dream to reality.

Realise how your buildings and spaces can create an extraordinary experience for your customers.

The Pre-Design Report lays the ground work to creating something extraordinary!

Get confident with our pre-design report:

- Workshop your project with our uniquely qualified team.
- Quantify what tourism buildings should do.
- Tell your stories and see how to bring them to life.
- Create a mood board that brings to life the heart and soul of your business.
- Know what Council says about your property.
- Find opportunities and challenges of your site.
- Understand what's involved to make the project happen.
- An outline of what happens next.
